Fitness App Roundup

A number of fitness apps and trackers have flooded the market in recent years, making it even easier to stay on track with your health goals. If you are struggling to maintain motivation or consistency with exercise, one of these fitness apps might help:

Headspace Meditation apps like Headspace are best known for their tension-relieving meditations and calming music playlists, but they also offer digital exercise options to help strengthen your physical wellbeing. www.headspace.com

Fitbit Fitbit, now owned by Google, is probably one of the most popular fitness apps on the market. With a variety of different smartwatches and trackers to choose from, you can track your progress in steps, miles, floors, minutes, or calories burned. In addition, Fitbit also offers a food tracker to help you improve your eating habits. www.fitbit.com

C25K For those who are new to fitness, the C25K (Couch to 5k) app is geared toward sedentary individuals who have a goal of working their way up to participating in a 5k. The app walks you through a series of incremental walk-run stages that help you advance your fitness level slowly and safely. www.c25k.com

Seven Seven is a fitness app that was founded on the principle that small habits lead to big changes. The app is structured to help you get results in just 7 minutes a day over seven months. www.seven.app/

Do Yoga with Me The Do Yoga with Me app help you begin a yoga practice wherever you are in terms of your current fitness level. Nearly half the content is free, which means you can try it before buy it. www.doyogawithme.com

Wakeout The Wakeout app gives you a gentle nudge whenever you have been sitting for too long. While this one does come with a small fee, it is a great option for beginners who are short on time. apps.apple.com/us/app/

The goal of an active lifestyle is for exercise to become who you are, rather than just something you do. To get started, assess your current habits, and look for creative ways to weave more physical activity into your daily life.
